v.)	ORDER ADOPTING PROPOSED
)	FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS
)	OF LAW AND ORDER
DECKER COAL COMPANY,) Respondent.)

This matter came before the Human Rights Commission for consideration as scheduled on May 4, 1999. Commission member Evelyn Stevenson was not present. Neither of the parties or their respective attorneys were present.

The Commission, having reviewed the record, and having noted that no objections or exceptions were timely filed by any party, briefly discussed the case. Following the discussion, the Commission voted 4-0 in favor of adopting the proposed Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Order as written by the Hearings Officer, on the grounds that there was substantial, credible evidence to support the proposed findings of law, that the proposed conclusions of law were correct, and that proposed order was appropriate in light of the findings and conclusions.

SO ORDERED.

Dated this ____ day of May, 1999.

Gloria "Patt" Etchart, Chair, Montana Human Rights Commission

A party may appeal from this order by filing a petition for judicial review with the district court no later than thirty (30) days from the service of this order pursuant to Section 2-4-701, et seq., MCA.
