

BEFORE THE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION
OF THE STATE OF MONTANA

JENNIFER ANNE MULLANEY,
Charging Party

HRB CASE NO. 0160195

-v-

FINAL AGENCY DECISION

DENNY MENHOLT FORD,
Respondent

Charging Party, Jennifer Anne Mullaney (Mullaney), filed a complaint with the Department of Labor and Industry (Department) alleging discrimination in employment on the basis of sex, age, disability and retaliation. Following an informal investigation, the Department determined that a preponderance of the evidence did not support Mullaney's allegations that Respondent, Denny Menholt Ford, discriminated against Mullaney. The Department issued a Notice of Dismissal. Mullaney filed an objection with the Montana Human Rights Commission (Commission). The Commission considered the matter on November 18, 2016. Jennifer Anne Mullaney appeared and argued on her own behalf. Emily Jones appeared and argued on behalf of Denny Menholt Ford.

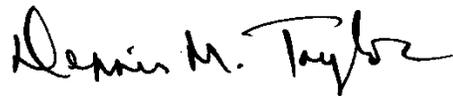

The Commission reviews a decision of the Department to dismiss a complaint using an abuse of discretion standard. Section 49-2-511(2), MCA. After careful consideration, the Commission concludes the determination of the Department to dismiss the complaint in this case is not an abuse of discretion.

If a charging party chooses to commence a civil action in district court, the charging party has 90 days after the date this order is issued to file a complaint in district court, in the district where the alleged violation occurred, and seek appropriate relief. Section 49-2-511(3)(a), MCA. If a charging party fails to commence a civil action within 90 days, the claims are time barred. Id.

Alternatively, a party may ask a district court to review the decision of the Commission to affirm the dismissal of a complaint. Sections 2-4-702 and 49-2-511(3)(b), MCA. This review must be requested within 30 days of the date of this order. A party must promptly serve copies of a petition for judicial review upon the Human Rights Commission and all parties of record. Section 2-4-702(2), MCA.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, that Jennifer Anne Mullaney's objection is overruled. The Commission affirms the determination of the Human Rights Bureau to dismiss the complaint against Denny Menholt Ford.

DATED this 23rd day of November, 2016.

Dennis M. Taylor, Chair
Human Rights Commission
